1. What do you think the author wants readers to remember most from this book?
Why do you think the author wrote this book?
2. What changes and challenges was Aiden going through in the beginning of the book?
How did that change by the end of the book?
3. Why do you think Aiden and the author wanted you to know more about him, not just that he was social distancing like everyone else?
Did getting to know him help you relate to Aiden and to his feelings?
4. Have you had some of the same feelings as Aiden about social distancing and other changes in your life?
Does it help you to talk about them, as Aiden decided it helped him?
4. What is one thing you would ask the author if you could talk to her?
